Professional Summary & Objective:

I am a Software Developer with knowledge of HTML, CSS, JS, Java, MongoDB, MYSQL Python, SQL, etc. I solve problems with leadership quality I love creating interactive user experiences, I want to transforming ideas into smooth digital solutions.

Projects:

Chat Application (Github:-<https://github.com/Ajit-Swami/chat-App-Mini-Project>)

I developed a chat application that runs smoothly in Chrome using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. The application provides a real-time messaging experience with a user-friendly interface. It supports multiple users and updates the chat dynamically without needing to refresh the page. The design is responsive, ensuring seamless functionality across different screen sizes.

SkinCare Website (Github:-<https://github.com/Ajit-Swami/SkinCare-Website-OJT>)

I developed a website using WordPress and Elementor, combining the flexibility of WordPress with the intuitive, drag-and-drop functionality of Elementor. This approach enabled me to create a visually appealing, responsive site without coding. With Elementor, I customized layouts and added interactive features, ensuring a seamless user experience across all devices.
